Due to the rapidly evolving circumstances concerning COVID-19, event organizers BolognaFiere and the Professional Beauty Association have postponed the 18th edition of Cosmoprof North America from September 2020 to June 27-29, 2021.

"Our commitment remains to providing a show environment that is both productive and safe, and postponing will allow us to meet our community's expectations," commented Steve Sleeper, executive director of the Professional Beauty Association. "We are thankful for the patience and overwhelming support we have received from our exhibitors, attendees, and partners in navigating this unprecedented situation."

"We have been actively monitoring ongoing developments regarding this global health emergency and have decided that rescheduling the show to 2021 is necessary to ensure the health and safety of our exhibitors, attendees and partners," added Enrico Zannini, general manager of BolognaFiere Cosmoprof SpA. "The well-being of the Cosmoprof community remains our top priority as we eagerly await the opportunity to connect the beauty industry face-to-face again."

In the coming months, Cosmoprof North America will be working on launching a virtual trade show in the fall to connect current exhibitors with buyers, distributors, retailers and press from the Cosmoprof community to encourage networking and business opportunities. Meanwhile, the entire team is devoted to ensuring the 18th edition operates at the level of prestige the show has been recognized for in the past.
